

Filing Exempt Water Rights Workshop

PRESENTER
JIM BECK

Wednesday, October 17th at 6:30 pm
at the Library Community Room

There is less than a year left to file your exempt water rights! This is an important opportunity to file on rights for livestock drinking directly from natural water sources, and domestic and stock water wells put to use before July 1, 1973.

“These sources of water are often vital to farming and ranching enterprises, but are also found in urban locations.”

Workshop Discussions: Mr. Beck will discuss exempt claim filing and documentation in more detail along with a brief history. He will outline the ramifications of the loss of priority date if the filings are not made. Got questions? Bring them along!
